Monthly commentary

The SA Equity Composite lagged the benchmark by a small margin of 0.4% during August.

During August, Perspective, with its bias towards undervalued South African companies, continued with its strong performance.

The Bartizan Sector Neutral strategy recorded another disappointing month, primarily due to the underperformance of commodity-based companies in the strategy. Gold Fields emerged as the worst performer, following the release of disappointing half-year results. The company's South Deep mine, despite being one of the world's largest gold reserves, produced 1,110kg less gold than expected, significantly impacting overall performance. In contrast, the strategy's South African Inc. companies, including Sanlam, Standard Bank, Mr Price, and AdvTech, demonstrated resilience. Their robust performance helped offset some of the losses incurred in the commodity sector, underscoring the importance of diversification in investment strategies.
